Chit chit chit cheeeeeeeee-ee ...

Fluttering his wings he sang,

Look!

Come and look,

I'm weaving a nest just for you.

Lady Baya Weaver

Where? Where do I look,
She asked,
Not at all pleased
Searching for the nest
He was weaving just for her.

Chit chit chit cheeeeeeeee-ee ...

Dangling on his feet he sang,

Look!

Come and look,

I'm weaving a nest just for you.

Baya Weaver

Where is the chamber,
Where is the entrance,
She asked,
Not at all pleased
With the nest he was weaving just for her.

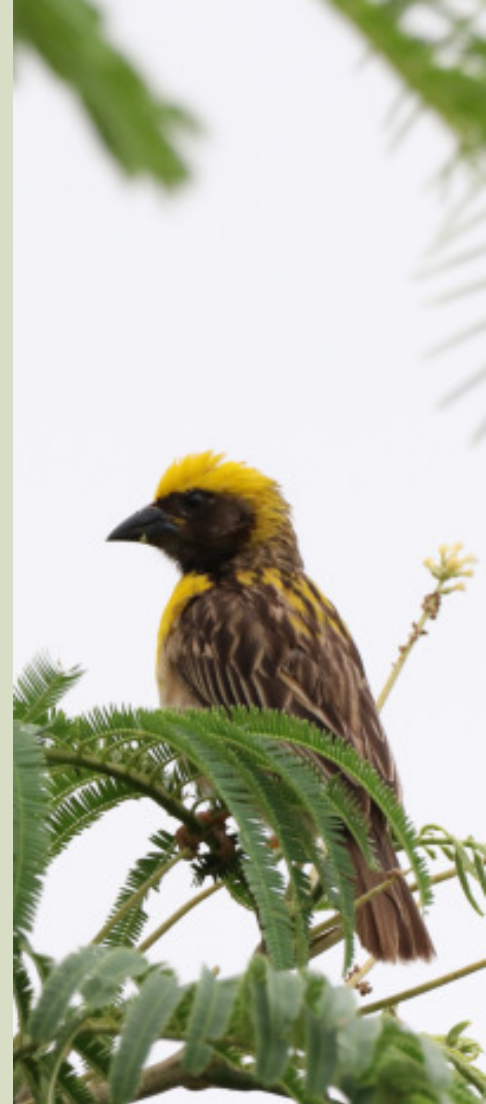

Chit chit chit cheeeeeeeee-ee ...

Perched atop a twig he sang,

Look!

Come and look,

I'm weaving a nest just for you.

The chamber is flimsy
But where is the entrance,
She asked, inspecting from within,
And not at all pleased
With the nest he was weaving just for her.

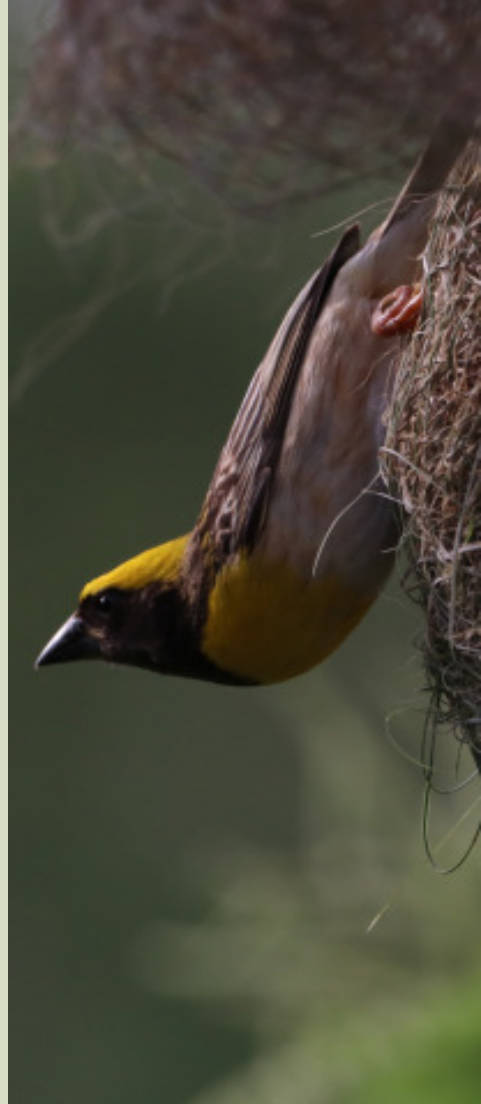

Chit chit chit cheeeeeeeee-ee ...

Clinging on to his nest he sang,

Look!

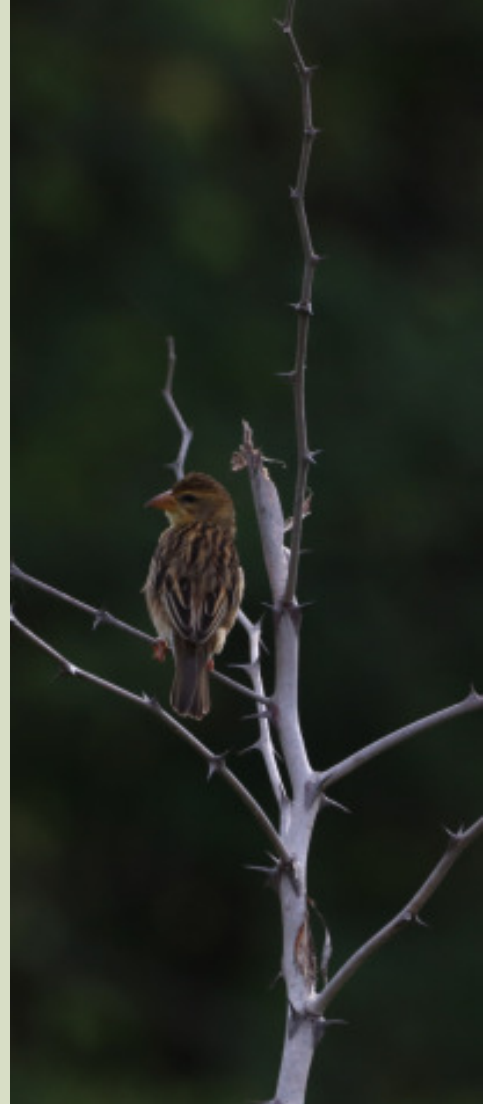

Come and look,

I'm weaving a nest just for you.

The chamber is nice,
Strong and stable,
But where is the entrance,
She asked, a bit pleased
With the nest he was weaving just for her.

Chit chit chit cheeeeeeeee-ee ...

Finishing the entrance he sang,

Look!

Come and look,

I've woven a nest just for you.

Looking from outside,
Looking from inside,
Signaling her approval she said,
I very much like the nest
You've just woven; woven just for me!
